

Responsibility

Responsibility is being accountable for your words or actions and taking blame for your mistakes. It is also about doing what is expected of you.

I am responsible for feeding the dog every morning and night.

Some other responsibilities I have are unloading and reloading the dishwasher when necessary.

Another responsibility I have is ensuring that my homework is done every night.